FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Diocese of Burlington and Saint Joseph College Enter Partnership Agreement

This past May the Diocese of Burlington formally entered a partnership agreement with St. Joseph College in Maine.

According to Deacon Phil Lawson, Diocesan Director of Evangelization & Catechesis, this is another opportunity for people in the diocese to equip themselves to be the “missionary disciples” for which Pope Francis is calling. “The more opportunities we can offer to inspire and equip people to live out the call of the New Evangelization as missionary disciples, the better. Providing offerings such as St. Joseph College’s online theology courses, the new Lay Formation Program, and the Bosco Conference at Steubenville for our Directors of Religious Education (DREs) and catechists will only help to make our parishes more vibrant.”

Located in Standish, Maine, St. Joseph College has developed a robust online theology program, making it easily accessible, and especially helpful given Vermont’s geographical challenges.

St. Joseph College offers both individual course options as well as full degree programs.

This agreement secures a waiver of the new student application fee for any individual in the Diocese of Burlington as well as a 10% discount on tuition.

For more information on this opportunity, please take a look at what Saint Joseph College offers at sjcme.edu/online or contact Dcn. Phil Lawson, Director of Evangelization & Catechesis for the Diocese of Burlington at plawson@vermontcatholic.org or 802-658-6110 x1453.

“St. Joseph’s College online theology programs are based on the philosophy that effective ministry requires a solid theological foundation, grounded in solid Catholic doctrine, with a deep spiritual and pastoral orientation. The online theology faculty embodies this philosophy. Rooted in and professing fidelity to the teachings of Jesus Christ and the doctrines and heritage of the Roman Catholic Church, all Saint Joseph College online theology courses take seriously the relationship between the spiritual and the intellectual, between faith and reason”
